ATTLEBORO HIGH SCHOOL

RATHBUN—WILLARD DRIVE
ATTLEBORO, MASSACHUSETTS

Throughout our twelve years of school we have had many different experiences which have affected us in some way. As we approach graduation we realize how important these high school years have been to us. There have been many people; guidance counselors, teachers, friends, to whom we could turn. When we became discouraged or wanted to give up, they were always there lending their support and making us feel needed. They offered us advice and taught us valuable lessons which we will remember for the rest of our lives. What we have learned during this time will enable us to survive future years successfully.

DEDICATION

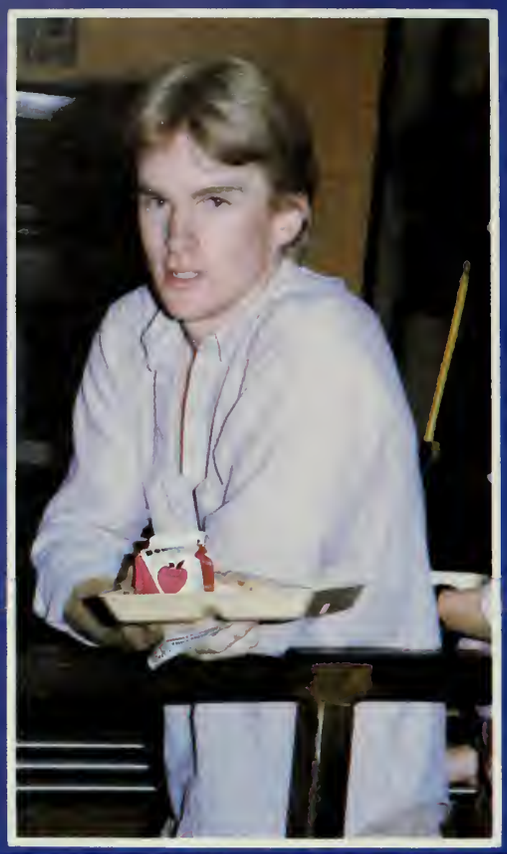
MISS ELAINE PAIVA

The class of [illegible] pleased to dedicate this year's yearbook to Miss Elaine Paiva. During the sophomore year, she became part of our school whose inspiration and [illegible] was refreshing to all. She was persistent in reminding us of our obligations and responsibilities for which we are grateful.

The class would also like to express their appreciation to Mrs. Sarmento and Mrs. Chase for their help and guidance in our senior year.

Our class was indeed fortunate to have these three teachers as advisors and friends. The ideals they represent will influence each of us in our lives.

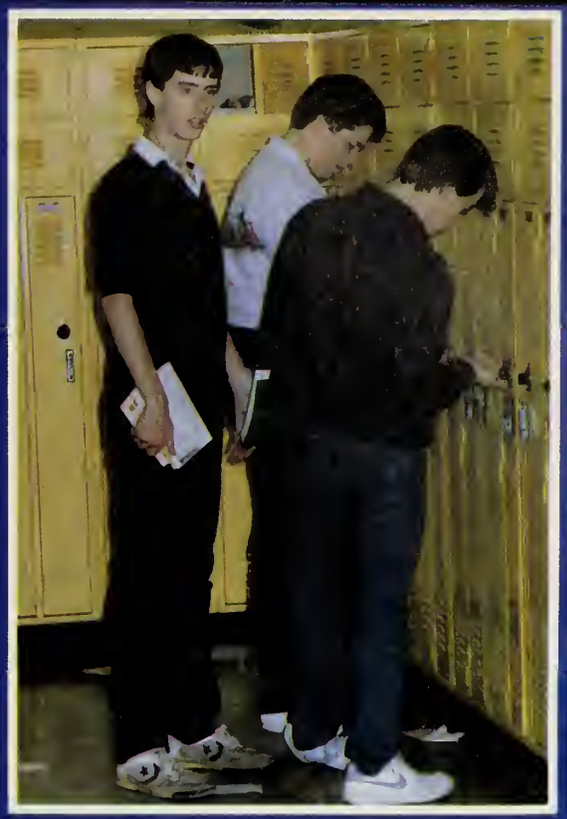
Thank you,
The Class of 1985

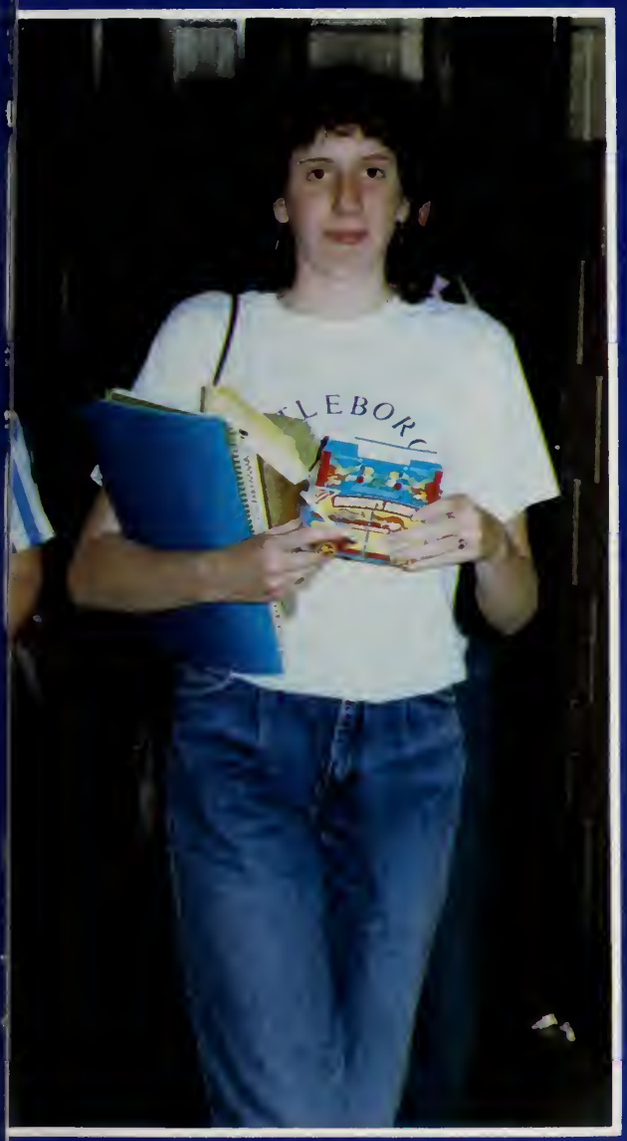


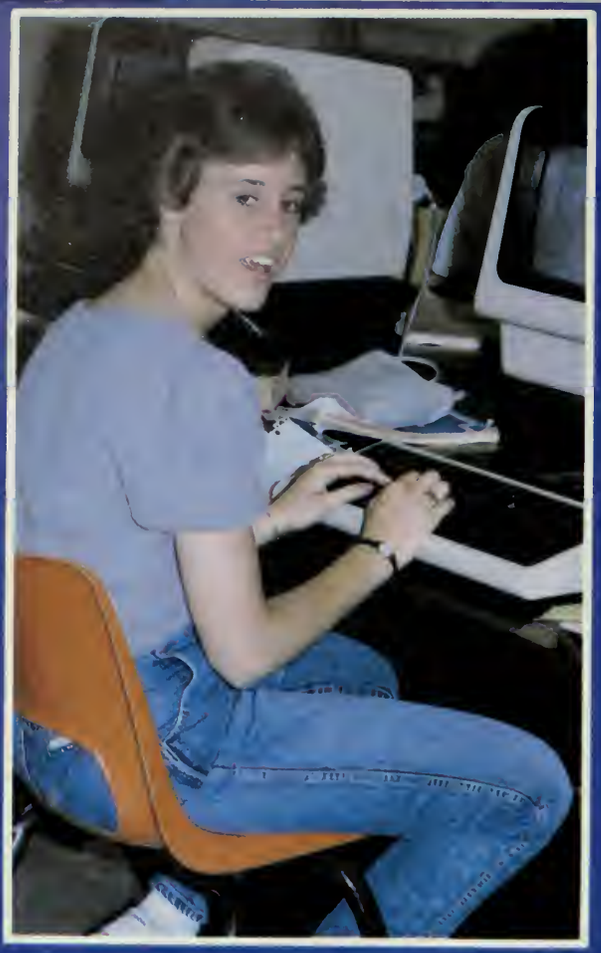
Approaching the doorway leading into the cafeteria, we pause momentarily to brace ourselves. Once again, we are about to encounter the "Lunchtime Experience." Standing in the doorway looking on, we see students running and grabbing frantically for places to sit. One would never realize the value of a piece of molded plastic with four legs. If one is lucky enough to find a seat, the feat of sitting on someone's left behind lunch is always there. For entertainment, AHS (proudly) presents "The Flying Foods." It's great watching them fly from one end of the cafeteria to the other. Lunch is most important because it gives us a chance to cram for our tests next period, do unfinished homework, find out the answers to the Algebra test, and make plans for the weekend.

Snelle
Snelle

Corridor life is great! Seeing all our friends, talking to them about the game plan for the weekend. Running through the hallways acting like complete lunatics is the fastest and easiest way to get to the other side of the school. And who could forget the high-fives and the groups hanging around the cafeterias, checking out what everyone is wearing and who has the homework done!!!







Walking to class, people are always standing in the corridors, either waiting for someone, or trying to be noticed, but the students and teachers are always different in the classroom.

The teachers have a variety of personalities and characteristics. Some like to keep the class amusing by telling jokes while others are more traditional. But there are always teachers who inspire students to learn.

The way each classroom is decorated has a lot to do with the personalities of the teachers. Some rooms have millions of plants while others have funny posters. Regardless of the decor, students and teachers are seen working together helping to shape our future.

THE OLD MAN AND THE SEA

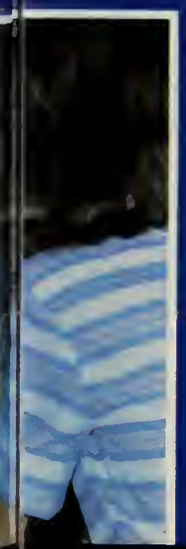
Attleboro High School Seniors, one can pick out them just by their facial expressions.

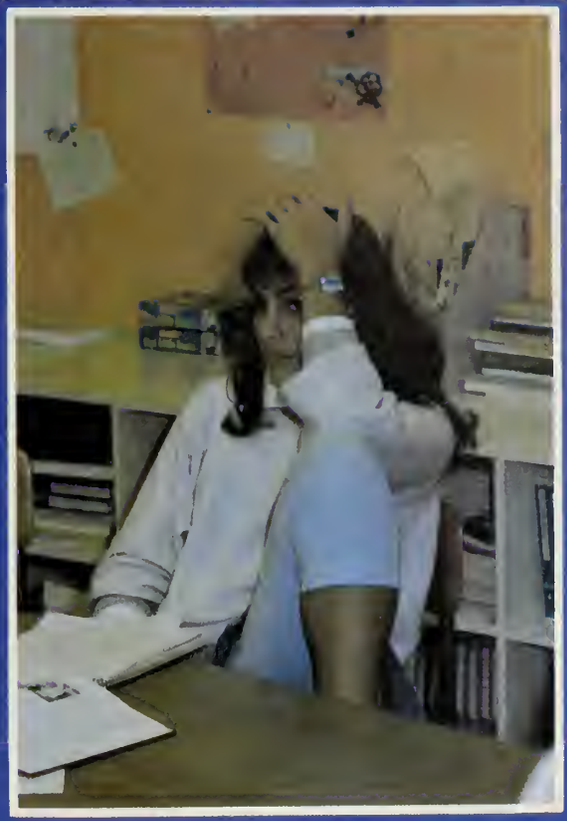
First there is the group of daydreamers. These people are always in a world of their own. They are most often found sitting near windows or walls. The daydreamer hasn't a care in the world. The eyes are looking up, the lips slightly parted and a general expression of dumbfoundedness.

The Monday expression is best exaggerated by the senior. Why am I here? Or am I still in bed? This person either has a confused or overly tired expression. The eyelids are at half-mast, the lips are closed, not tightly, and there is usually some sand caked in the eye from last night's visit from Mr. Sandman.

Lastly, the Friday expression. The eyebrows are raised showing happy expectations of 2:00. The eyes are searching for the nearest exit and the ears extended impatiently waiting for the bell. This expression is easier to read than any book: LET'S GET OUT OF HERE!!



At the beginning of the school year, it takes a few days for the underclassmen to become familiar with high school life. Freshman are amazed at all the different types of people they see. They're afraid of some and laugh at others. When they return as Sophomores, changes are noticeable. They are not as quiet and participate more in the pep rallies and other school activities. By the time they are Juniors, they know the school pretty well. They become more independent and are anxious for the year to end so they can become the Seniors.



Friendship is probably one of the most important things in a person's life. We all have a special friend with whom we all can laugh and cry and whom is so special to us. We can share anything with them.

They give us their opinion on anything we ask them and even on things we don't, but that's what friends are for-to stick by each other through thick and thin.

All friends comfort us in one way or another by words or gifts, but some let us have a shoulder to cry on, and that's what a friend is all about.

Captain Attleboro, emerging from the crowd in a single bound, proudly prances around the gymnasium receiving his praise from all of the Attleboro fans. But suddenly!!! Our great hero is attacked and by the worst and lowest enemy of all . . . . a Feehanite! The crowd goes wild as they chase after the Feehanite, fearing for his life, and runs him out of our territory. Thus ends, another exciting moment in the life and times of Captain Attleboro.

IN MEMORIAM...

Mrs. Catherine Marsden

Mrs. Cathy Marsden, who was a very special teacher and friend to all, passed away this past September. She died a very sudden, tragic death which comes as a shock to all.

Cathy Marsden was very accomplished woman who held a special place in so many hearts and minds. She was a person with such a gentle, carefree spirit, you could not help but like her immediately - always willing to share a part of her treasured life with everyone, yet always there to listen to others, whether it was a problem, a joy, or just chatter. These characteristics, along with many others, made her an exceptional teacher. Just knowing that the teacher was on "your side" and really cared about each student as an individual made the students try that much harder. By sharing her many experiences with the students, she made her classes a little more interesting.

When asked to describe Cathy Marsden's gentle, life-loving attitude and different style, her teacher-friends classified her as a "flower child of the 60's." She grew through adolescence in the free-spirited 1960s and couldn't face letting those great times just pass by. She held that special spirit in her heart and in her dress for many years.

Originally from Newton and a graduate of Regis College in Weston, Cathy attained her goals of teaching and raising a beautiful family. Her one child, Jesse Dylan, meant the world to her. She shared with him her great loves of poetry, theater, and nature.

Vermont had special meaning to Mrs. Marsden because of her love for nature. She loved the trees, the birds, the grass, the mysteriously trickling rivers, and especially the flowers. She felt that death was beautiful in the way that each person was returned to nature as a blade of grass on the earth.

Every day had such great value in Cathy's life. She faced her problems positively and usually managed to overcome them. She looked at everyone and everything with a sentimental, rather than a materialistic value. She found all people fascinating because everyone has something different to offer to others, and always managed to keep this happy versatile atmosphere about her.

Cathy Marsden touched so many people in so many ways that she will never be erased from our memories. We will all treasure everything learned and miss the personal touch with which it was taught. We shall think of her as we approach our new lives, read a good book, or even while passing a beautiful spring flower bed. If only every person could hold a piece of that life-loving happiness that she possessed, the world would be a much nicer place.

We were the last class to enjoy the benefits of her teaching, and that means a great deal to us. As we all move on from this school, holding our special memories of times passed, we'd just like to say "Thank you, Mrs. Marsden for sharing so much of you with us."

Robyn Wild - Class of 1986

These sudden ends of time must give us pause.
We fray into the future,
rarely wrought.
Save in the tapestries of afterthought.
More time More time . . . . .

(This is a stanza quoted from one of Cathy Marsden's favorite poems)

July 21, 1984

Daniel Gattoni

Not long ago you went away,
There is so much we'd like to say.
We hope you know you're missed so much,
By family, friends, and those you've touched.
We'll never forget the joy you gave,
Although you're gone, the memories stay.

Daniel Courchesne

He came over the back fence for years, it seems,
to share his secrets,
to share his schemes.

Now flowers ring a wounded tree like a monument to soldiers fallen in this ageless war of growing up, and growing older.

A good, good boy, better than most,
he's sailing to a different coast.
His absence aches, we're short of breath, nothing hurts like love, and death.

Over the backyard fence he came for years and years, it seems,
sharing smiles and silly jokes,
sharing hopes and dreams.

The rain, like our tears, is not yet done, though he's in a place of light and sun.
Just think that now, in a different sense, he's climbing over some other fence.

Seniors '86

Our first day of school, as freshman, was quite an experience. We were all nervous, anxious, and scared. We pulled together, though, under the leadership of our class president, Matt Manlove. Our fundraiser, a magazine drive, proved to be a success. The float committee constructed a nice float with a theme that has yet to be topped, "fly high with the pride and the power of 86". We came together as a class when we beat the juniors and seniors and went on to be the tug-of-war champions, a simple title which we accepted with great pride. We ended the year with the freshman social, and everyone had a great time.

As sophomores we entered the school with much more confidence. We made it through our freshman year and had matured into a class that was ready to accept a change. With the leadership of Bill Semple, the class president, we were an outspoken class. We thought that the magazine drive, a traditional fundraiser for sophomores, was over used. With permission, we sold wrapping paper, which proved to be much more profitable. Since then it has been a tradition for sophomores to sell wrapping paper. When we won the float contest it was no surprise to the class. We had put our creativity and talents together to make a truly conceptual and exceptional float. Our sophomore gathering went over extremely well, and it capped off a great year.

Our junior year was an exciting one— there was alot to be excited about. The football team was the best it had been in years. This affected the spirit of the school, as well as reflecting the year for the juniors. It was our big chance to play powderpuff!! The whole junior team was psyched and ready to play hard football. Even though the seniors beat us, (real bad), we still remained a unified class. Under the leadership of Christine Schneider, class president, we had a highly successful, as well as profitable, fundraiser — candy bars, of course. This fundraiser was just what our class needed to set the pace for an awesome prom. When we came to the close of the year, many found it hard to accept that indeed come Septemeber, we were going to be the senior class of Attleboro High School. We had accomplished the three years of school that lead to the climax of our high school careers.

Well it had finally come as more of a surprise than we could believe, our high school, and for some, school career, had but one year left. It was hard to accept that we were now role models. We came into the year a highly organized unit — until the powderpuff trauma. After this rough time, we were again an organized class. The true test was the senior prom, even though during which the band was having technical problems, throughout the evening we remained calm and it turned out spectacular. Our fundraiser, which started slowly, turned out to raise a lot of funds. Our float won the contest for the second time. We also won the tug-of-war contest again, for a total of three wins, making us undefeated. Then came our last week of school which was loaded with activities such as the reception, breakfast, and of course, graduation.

As we grow older and we all go our different ways in life, I would hope that someday you take out this yearbook and clear the dust off it, open it up and remember all the good times we had as a class, as well as among our closest friends. Good luck in your every adventure.

FRESHMAN SOCIAL — ATTLEBORO

MAY 13 1983
"LOVE HURTS"

On May 13, 1983, being our first year at A.H.S. we held our Freshmen Social. With mixed anticipation we arrived at the school to meet our friends. No one really had a date, and none of us thought it would be such a great time.

By mid-evening we were a hopeless case of twists and hustles, hosted by a rock-n-roll D. J. What was first thought of as a small, boring, class dance, turned into a great success and left us waiting in anticipation for the next year's dance.

HIGH SCHOOL

APRIL 18, 1984 "OPEN ARMS"

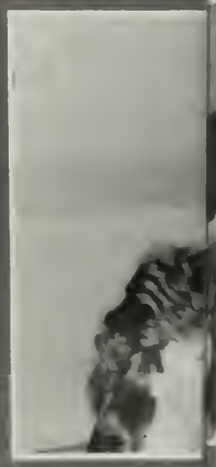
On Wednesday, April 18, 1984, the Attleboro High Schools' Sophomore Gathering was held. Being a little fancier than the freshmen social, the dance was held at the Highland Country Club. It's a very classy place and it set the scene for a romantic star-filled evening, with windows over-looking its' impressive landscapes. Dancing under dim lights to music by "Sight", I think we all felt a little more grown up. We finally had our own class memories to look back on, which we well received with "Open Arms", (our Sophomore Gathering theme).

COUNTRY CLUB

JUNIOR PROM

APRIL 26, 1985

"INSPIRATION"



It was finally our third year of high school, and time for the event we've all been waiting for: The Junior Prom. This was the first formal dance our class had ever attended. It was held at the Seekonk Hearthstone Inn, on April 26, 1985. All the boys looked extremely handsome in their tuxes and the girls looked sparkling in their gowns. I don't think our class has ever looked better! When we weren't dancing to music by "Sight", we were off somewhere snapping pictures of friends; pictures we'll look back on forever. The prom was truely great because we all participated in dancing, and everyone had a good time. The night came to a close after the last song, which was the prom theme; "Inspiration" by Chicago.

SENIOR PROM — SHERATON

NOVEMBER 22, 1985
"ALL MY LOVE"

All My Love

The senior prom. . .
Ours was like every prom,
With the exception of the fact,
That our prom was filmed.
It was much like the summer,
that you thought would never end.
So magical, so mystical
And than one day you wake up
From a deep sleep,
And realize that the summer is over,
And all you have left are the memories.
The Senior Prom was like that long, lost summer.
It, too, was magical and mystical.
Tuxes and Satin gowns,
And music of our time,
The smell of rose, candle, and perfume.
Love was endent. . . and however different our lives and schools,
We were all gathered for the same reason,
And we all shared the same kind of happiness,
That can only be found in ones' youth.
Like the summer I never thought would end,
The senior Prom ended,
With "All My Love."

TURKEY DAY

As the band played jubilantly, the cheerleaders lead the students in many cheers in order to psyche them for the upcoming Turkey Day Game. There were many who spoke of the game and the significance of the "Hilda" trophy, which was rewarded to the winning team. The Homecoming Queens for each class were presented with flowers by their class president. The best of luck was offered to A.H.S. by everyone, and the game was just around the corner.

SCIENCE

Henry Ferry-Department Head

The main goal of the Science Department is to meet the students' needs concerning the basics of science. As a means of learning, there are teacher demonstrations, participation in various lab activities, and computer usage. Students should also expect to present material in the classroom. Students can benefit from taking science courses by developing good lab and study skills and by developing a better understanding of science and technology as it develops around them.

Tracey Sousa - Most Likely to Succeed

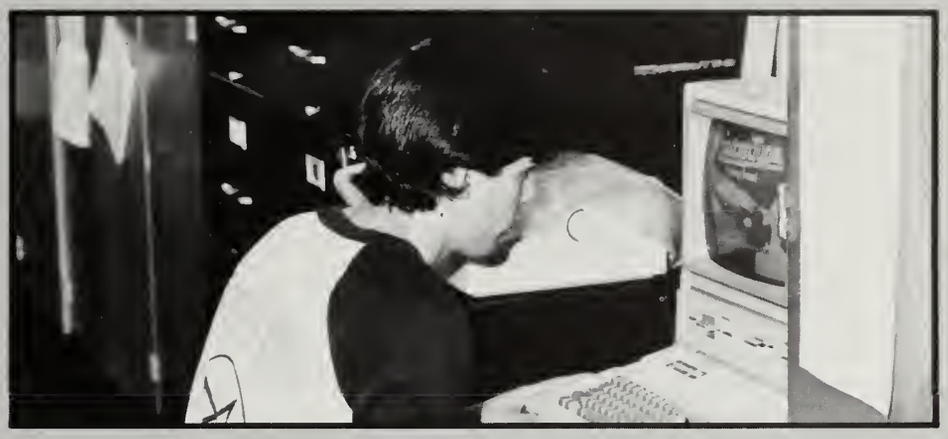
A drawing is a graphic representation of a real thing an idea, or a proposed design for construction. The idea of communicating thoughts from one person to another through drawings is the main goal of the Technical Drawing Department. The graphic method of representation is not only a natural form of communication, it is universal and timeless.

VOCATIONAL SKILLS



The Vocational Skills Development Center provides tutorial support to Vocational Students. The center assists the students with theory, vocabulary, test taking skills and safety precautions. Methods of teaching include individual attention, programmed exercises and commercial lessons. The center provides its services to all shop areas and emphasizes the improvement of comprehension and functional knowledge of the vocational material.

NURSES/ILA'S

The Health Department provides medical direction to all students. Through one-on-one discussions and close personal contact, they try to create a positive health image. The nurses are not only concerned with medical problems. Students can go there for personal problems and receive special attention. They give advice and lend their support in all types of situations.

HOME ECONOMICS

Home Economics is a course which is helpful for your future needs. In foods and nutrition you learn how to balance your meals and a proper diet. Child development, another aspect of the course enables you to develop a career as a nursery school teacher. Students learn how to care for a child by learning about child develpment. Students operate a nursery school during the last quarter, which gives them practical experience.

This year's student to Most Likely to Succeed in Home Economics is Laurie Curti.

BOYS HOOP

Coach Sherman

Captain Mike McCutcheon

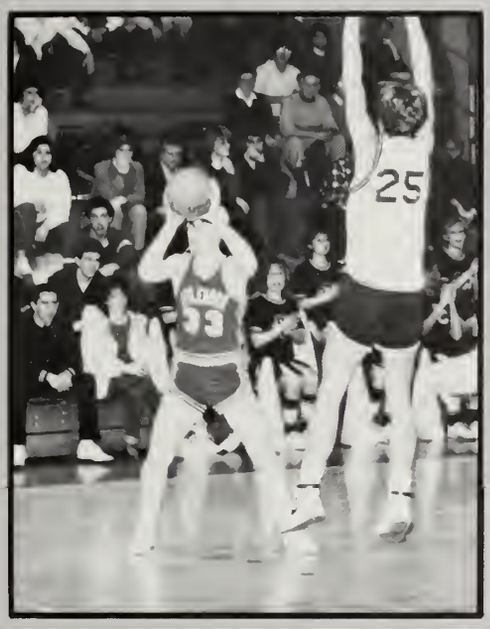
Dave Neveux waits to make the rebound.

As always, Kevin gets by his opponent.

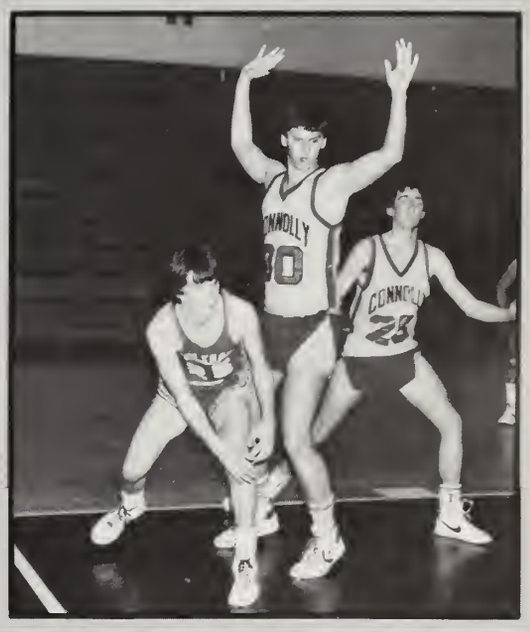
Captain Mike McCutcheon gets the rebound for Attleboro.

Danny O'Connell passes the ball for another two points.

Sean Brumble watches his shot go in.



"Whitey" waits for just the right time.



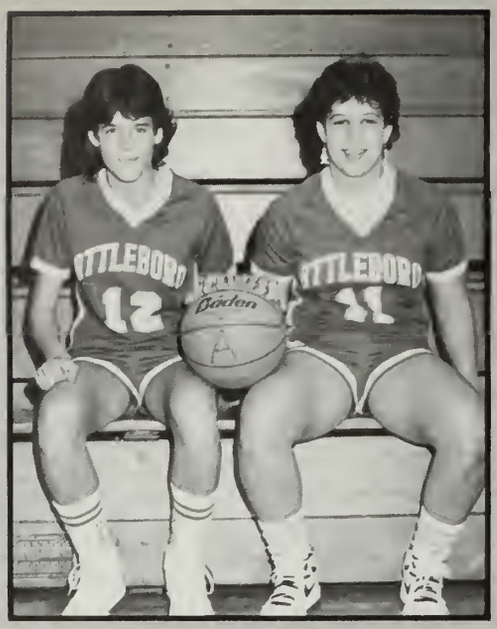
Junior Scott Sackett goes underneath to get the pass.

The basketball team was very successful this year as it entered into a new conference, and has now started to prepare for the State Tournament with great enthusiasm.

Mike McCutcheon was very proud to be the captain of this year's team. Much of its success is due to the excellent performance of many team members and the dedicated coaching of Mr. Sherman.

Several team members, including Dan O'Connell, who had an excellent season, were very optomistic about the State Tournament. Because of the spirit and success of this year, the team's momentum will carry through to many future successful seasons.

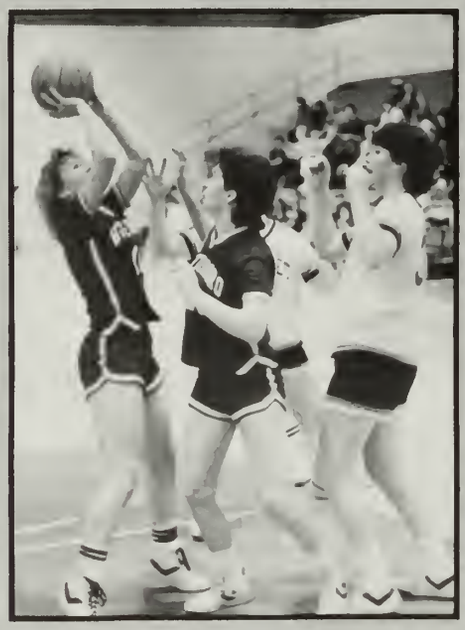
GIRLS HOOP



Co-Captains: Chris Murphy, Wendy Moreau

Coach: Bill Riley

"She's unstoppable."



"Dr. Gravel in Traffic."

"She's gonna Jam."

"Concentration."

"I can finally see the light."

"Try me, chump."

The Girls Basketball team had many good times together this year. Co-Captains Chris Murphy and Wendy Moreau kept the team united and spirited throughout a rather unsuccessful season.

There are a lot of young, talented players who have the ability to develop into superb team members for next year. The unity and spirit that developed, will carry them over to a more optomistic season next year.

"Watch out for the elbow smash."

"The doctor in action again."

"Getting ready for another cheer."

"What did you say? I can't hear you."

"Hand Warmin' for a McDLT."

"What cheer are we on?"

"Raise your hand if you're sure."

This year's cheerleading squads were very excited and supportive. Always there to raise the fans spirits, they continued to remain optomistic.

The football squad started the season out well by returning from Cheering Camp at SMU with many various awards including a Congeniality Award, a 110% blue ribbon for superspirit, and twelve other ribbons. Co-Captains Missy Angelo and Lisa Doucette were proud of the girls, and their performance this season and wish them the best of luck.

The basketball squad also did extremely well under Co-Captains Deana Vincent and Missy Angelo. They cheered their team on to many victories by never giving up hope.

"Is it over yet?"

"Get it together girls."

"The girls have it all together."

"Lisa, don't look so happy."

"Another game, another victory."

X COUNTRY

Cross Country Tri-Captains Bob Bischoff, Kathy Savoie, and Adam Newman feel that they had a successful season, winning the Seekonk Columbus Day Invitational Meet. But more importantly, the team became a lot closer. "We had the chance to get to know all the team members better. We were more like a family, very supportive of one another", said the tri-captains.

Coach Newman was described as not only being a great coach, but a great friend as well. "He was always right there when you wanted him and when you needed him most. We're all going to miss him when we leave. He was not only concerned with the team, but was personally involved with each member", said tri-captain Kathy Savoie.

Next year the team will experience the same unity by being led through another great season by captains elect Rick Crawford, Tina Kelly, and Jay Martin.

DRIVE

"This year we wanted to play with a winning attitude, develop team spirit and have a lot of fun" say co-captains Natalie Pitas and Kathy Keane. "We all had a great time."

The team has worked hard this season with Coach O'Connell, who was patient, helpful, and understanding, and improved in their overall playing.

Because of the young talent on this year's team, next season looks very optimistic.

the extra Yardage."

"Making way for Ron"

As always, the Football Team made a great effort through the season. Our players demonstrated school spirit and determination on the playing field. "Our team this year had a lot of young talent that will make us stronger for next year", said co-captains Dan O'Connell and Kevin Cummings.

Coach Hanewich and his coaching staff were very dedicated to the team, spending many hours designing new plays and studying films of previous games and practices. The team felt that the staff kept them disciplined and prepared a foundation which can be built upon in the future years.

Next year, captains-elect, Jim Reynolds and All-Star Kevin Candelet will lead the team through a program of demanding exercises and play routines. The coaching staff and players are looking forward to another challenging season.

Senior Captains Karen Blais, Korey Goodrich, and Lori Friedman

"Don't tell us that move is routine."

"Great balance Minda."

"No one was supposed to see that one, hugh?"

"A new form of gymnastics girls?"

Coach Mike Martin

"Let's try a real stretch now."

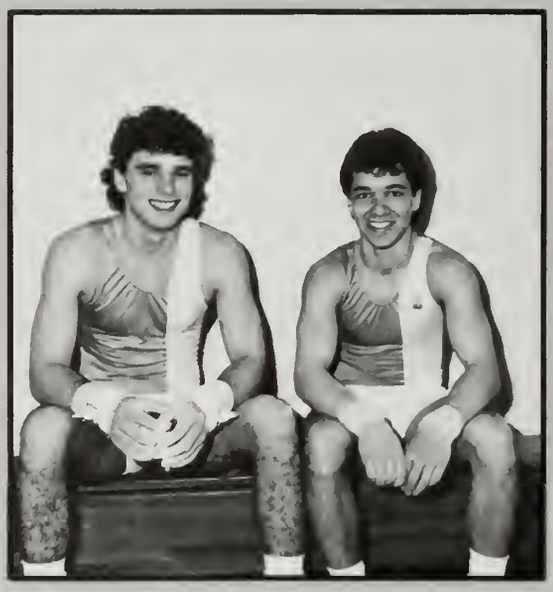
Co-captains Laurie Friedman and Karen Blais feel that this season was quite successful. "We were very supportive of each other, always willing to help someone out. The team was very unified. During practices we looked out for each other and this helped us in competition."

The team should remain successful for next year. Laurie and Karen would like to thank everyone for a great season and wish them the best.

FLEX'EM

Coach Martin

"A final stretch before the big meet."



Co-Captains Pete Morin & J.P. LaRosse

"A look of Confidence."

The Boys Gymnastics team had it's best season in a long time this year. Co-Captains J.P. LaRosse and Peter Morin believe it was because the team had more depth than in previous years. Another reason why the team was to successful is because of the spirit and unity of all the members.

Everyone is looking forward to an excellent season next year with the talent of the young team members. Peter and J.P. wish them the best of luck.

"Pete with the perfect dismount."

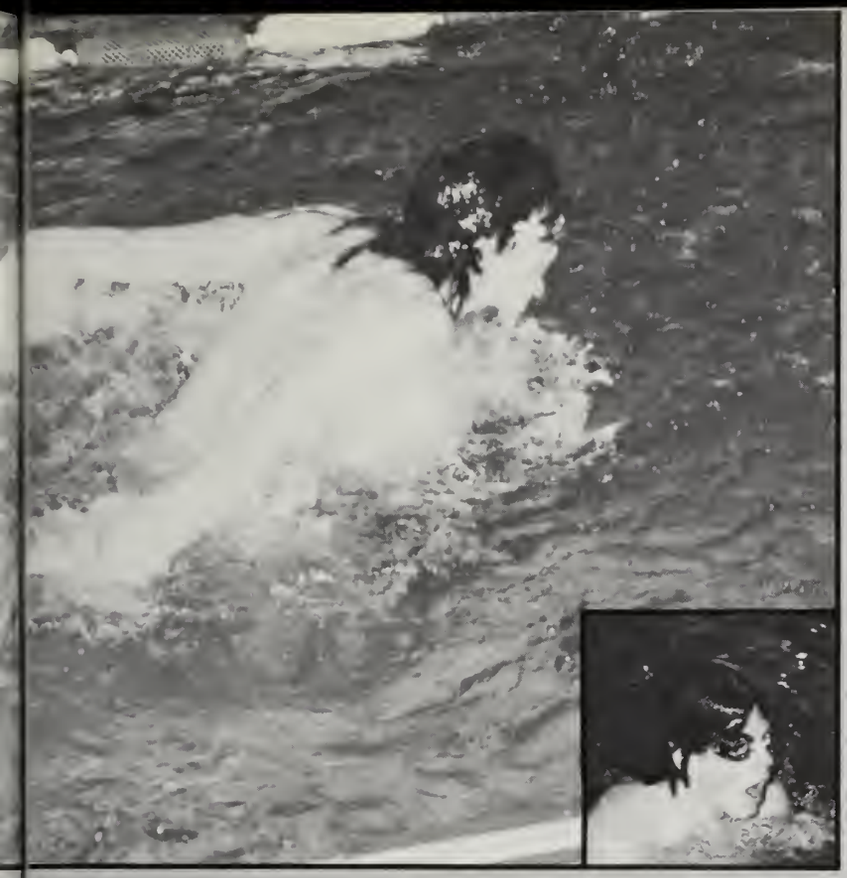
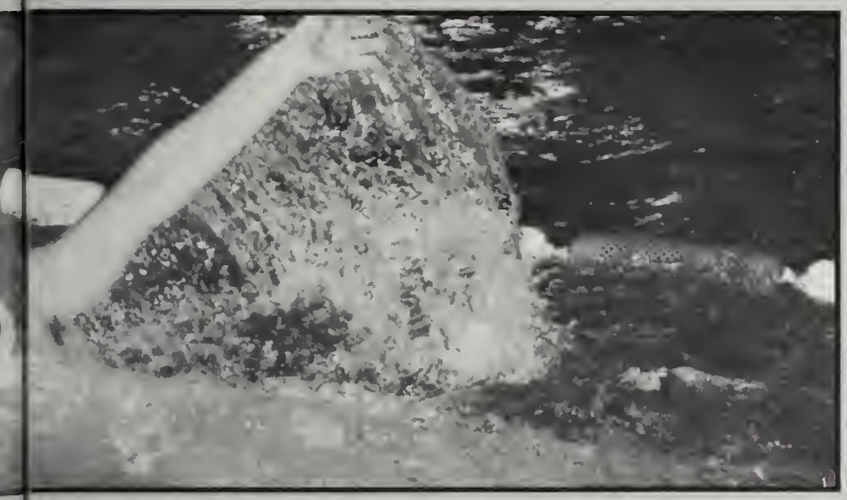
"Look out-here I come."



"Creature from the Black Lagoon."



"Going for the Gold."

"Water Wings"

Co-captains: Henry Lopez and Peter Koback

Under the leadership of co-captains Henry Lopez and Peter Koback, the Boys Swim Team had a very successful season.

There were many team members who greatly improved their early season times and a good representation of the team was shown at the Southern Conference Sectional Meet. Lopez, Koback and Patrick O'Donnell also had great expectations as they qualified for the State Meet.

We remained spirited throughout the season and that helped us to defeat our competition. The team should remain strong next year and prove to have another great season.

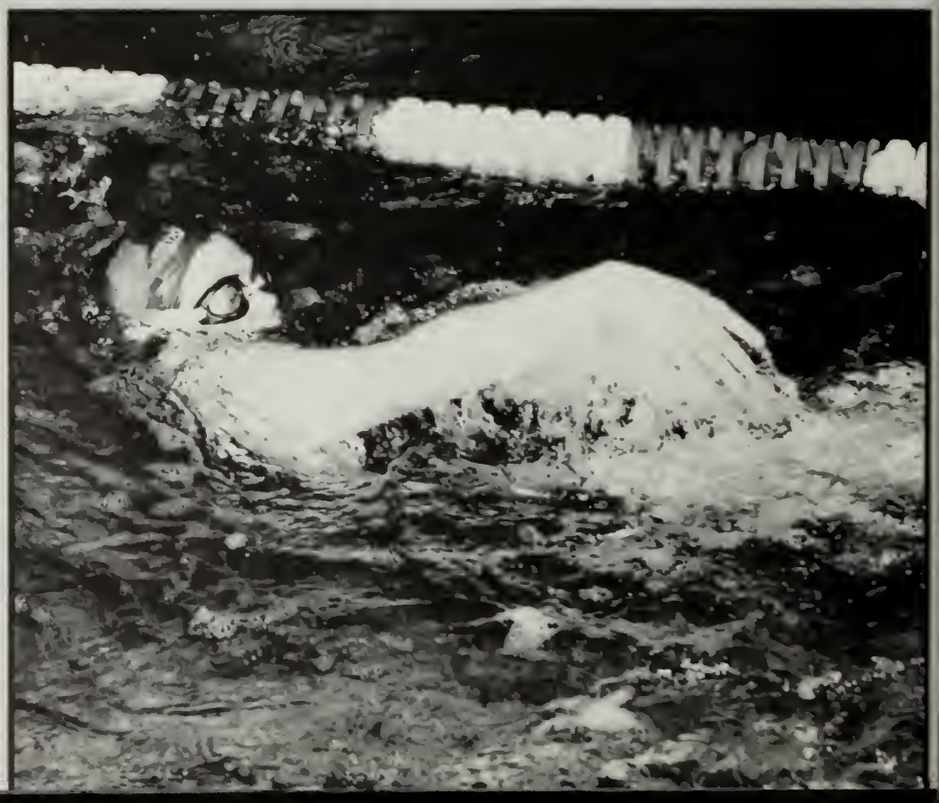
"Aqua Woman"

"Aren't we done yet?"

"Goin' for the gold"

Captains Beth Leroux and Jenn Hyde



"They call me Flipper!"

"3, 2, 1 Blastoff!"

This year we had a much better season than any of us had anticipated, including Coach Dentch, "says Co-Captains Jenn Hyde and Beth Leroux. "We finished second in our league and saw a lot of great performances by many of the girls." Korey Goodrich set a new diving record for six dives and was also chosen along with Beth Wadick, Erica Christensen, Kris Fagnand and Beth Leroux for the Southern Conference All-Stars. Despite the loss of seniors, next year's team will still be strong and very competitive.

SPIKE

Co-captains Brenda Nothelfer and Chris Souey, feel that although the records indicate that they did not have a very successful season, the team remained spirited and developed a sense of unity. "The team was more like a family", said co-captain Brenda Nothelfer. 'We spent a lot time together, not only at practice, but out of school as well".

Coach Riley's efforts were appreciated by the team and he was assisted by next year's new assistant coach, Tammy Payette.

Coach Newman

"Attleboro pulls a remarkable comeback."

"Another super throw by K.C."

The Girls Winter Track Team displayed a lot of talent and depth this year. Co-Captains Kathy Savoie and Christine Schneider believe that the abilities of the younger members will aid in making next year's team a success. The team was not only close and supportive as athletes, but also spent time together as friends out of school.

The Boys Winter Track Team was also very close and talented. Tri-Captains Bob Bischoff, Adam Newman and Matt Manlove qualified for Easterns along with fellow teamates Ted Morrissey and Andy Galasso.

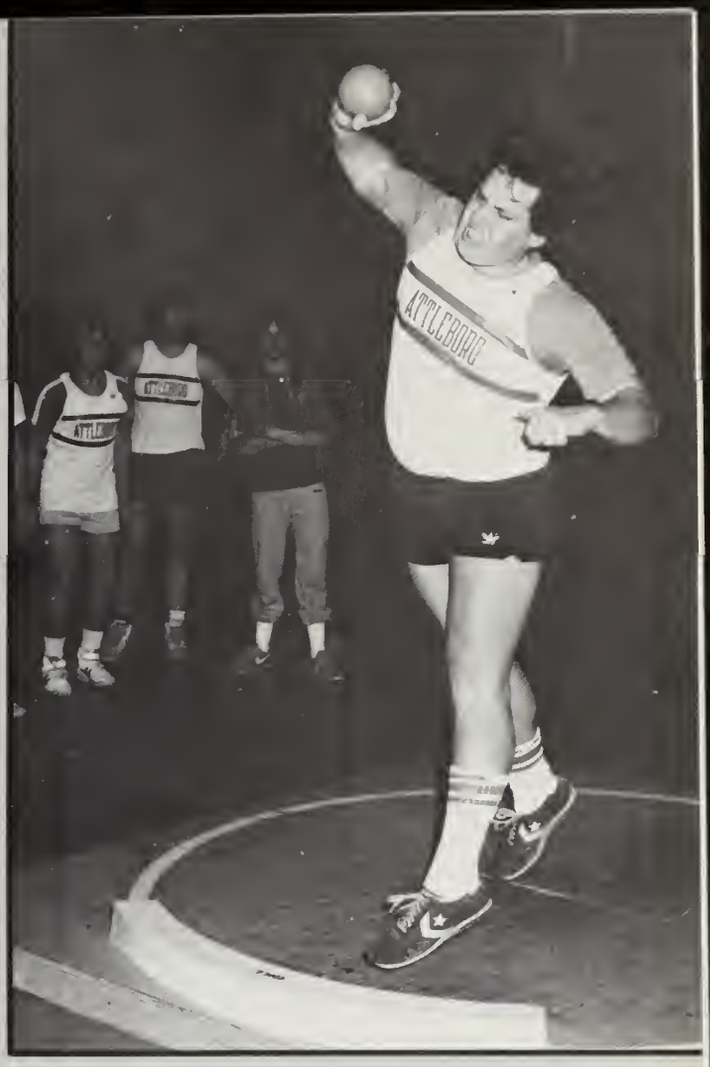
Both the Boys and Girls Teams would like to thank Coach Newman and Assistant Coach Tammy Payette for their continued support and guidance through another great season.

"Kathy: way ahead of everyone else"

"A.H.S. finishes first"

Captains (l to r): Adam Newman, Chris Schneider, Matt Manlove, Kathy Savoie, Bob Bischoff.

Another great jump for Dave.



A display of Bill's awesome strength.

Bob's concentration brings him another victory.

CLASS OF '87

Advisors: Mrs. Martin and Mr. Amaral

As Juniors we begin the best half of our high school years. We know what direction we are headed in, and are working toward future goals. The friends and memories we have accumulated since Freshman year will be everlasting.

This year has started off great. We were voted "Most Spirited Class" in the beginning of November after a tough competition with the Seniors. Although the Powderpuff game was forfeited to us, a big dissappointment since we had such a great team, the enthusiasm shown during practices was overwhelming. This brought the class even closer together, as our work was not in vain.

In January we will hold our fundraiser: Selling M&M's. We have been successful with past fundraisers, and I'm sure success will continue.

Looking forward to the Junior Prom, the excitement is already in the air. Our prom will be held on April 12, 1986 at the Red Snapper in Foxboro. I hope that everyone has a great time.

Beyond this year, the future is ours. I hope everyone has a terrific Senior year, and a great life.

To an outstanding class, thank you for your friendship and support and best of luck next year and throughout life.

Yours,
Colleen Wade

Our second year at Attleboro High School has been a very important one, and I feel that our class realized that and worked hard to make it the best year it could possibly be.

This year was full of exciting events such as our two-week fundraiser of selling wrapping paper, and the ordering of our class rings. All members of the class were excited about the arrival of their rings in February.

Aside from the fundraiser and ordering of class rings, we were kept busy with work on our float, having pre-production meetings after school and then building it. All these events brought us closer together and made us a more spirited class.

Finally, after a long wait we had our Sophomore Gathering on May 9, at the Attleboro Elks. It was a huge success and everyone had a terrific time.

To the Class of '88, I give the spirit to be remembered as one of the best classes in the history of Attleboro High School! To all future classes—Good Luck!

"Who, Me?!?!"

As we experience our first year together we learn values of friendship and cooperation that helps us to excell in what we put our minds to. I have noticed that the class of '89 is very determined but not shy to accept new things and challenge new ideas. Many people outside of Student Council have dedicated their time and effort to help run things effectively. I would just like to say "thank you" to those people. I would also like to thank Mrs. Bradbury and Mrs. Blythe, our very thoughtful and understanding advisors, for helping us down that rocky road to a successful school year.

And remember it's not who you are, it's what you do and how you do it that make a difference.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Carlota Pombo, Brigit Fuchs, Anna Staaf.

My name is Brigit Fuchs, and I come from Austria. "America"-the great dream of many Europeans. I had one year to live like an American kid and it was a lot of fun to go to A.H.S.

It was a very good experience for me to live in a different way than at home. I learned that you can never say it's wrong how Americans live- they live only different and some things seem funny to me!

I want to thank my teachers and classmates for their help during the year and especially the first couple of weeks- weeks of confusion for me.

In June I'll go back to Austria but I'll never forget my senior year at A.H.S.

Brigit Fuchs

I am very impressed with the High School and with all the different activities that one can study. It is also great to see so many people involved with sports at the school.

Personally I am very happy to be here, both teachers and students have been a tremendous help to me in adjusting to this new culture.

Carlota Pombo

It has been a real experience for me to come to this big country so far away from my home. I've encountered many new situations, eaten food I never dreamed of and I have learned a lot about myself.

The American way of life is so different from my like back in Sweden, but after a while you have got in to it and everything goes fine.

You really get an oppertunity to meet all kinds of different people, because when you are in another country you have to ask about information and make people aware that you may not understand their rules.

I want to thank those students who helped me during the first confusing weeks in school. I also want to thank one of my hostsisters Kelli Grimes, who is a Sophomore here, for her support during this school year and of course the rest of her family for being an excellent hostfamily for me which means a lot when you are so far from your own home. I have made so many new friends in this school and I know that I'm going to miss them when I go back home but they always be in my mind and I shall always remember my Senior year at Attleboro High School U.S.A. as the most exciting year of my life.

Anna Staaf

THE CRAFT ADVISORY COMMITTEE & PROJECT ADVISORY COMMITTEE ATTLEBORO VOCATIONAL TECHNICAL SCHOOL

The Craft Advisory Committee and Project Advisory Committee are appointed by the school board to advise and assist the faculty and administration in the planning, operation and evaluation of all programs.

This dedicated group of men and women from local business, industry, and labor provide guidance in market trends, technological development, and training needs throughout the school year. Information is shared during regularly scheduled general meetings and in department conferences.

The students, faculty, and administration wish to thank these individuals for their contributions and support.

'86 EDITORS

To the Class of 1986:
Four years ago, our senior year and "Tattletale '86" seemed so very far away. However, with each day came each year, and with each year finally came 1986. Our life at A.H.S. has gone by so quickly, the only real memories we have left are stored in this book.

The staff received and unbelievable amount of support from everyone this year, 48 color pages and eight additional pages to that has made "Tattletale '86" the biggest and brightest Attleboro has ever seen. To everyone who dropped in now and then to check up on us and show their interest, thanks, it really meant a lot.

Our enthusiasm for the year was evident everyday fifth period and all those half days when we were sent out to sell ads. It all paid off in the end for our deadlines were met, money was raised, and many pizza parties were held. (Mr. Frederick always had the last piece!)

This years staff would like to thank the faculty for their understanding, Mrs. Soucy for her classes participation in the essays, Lisa Doucette and Ray Nason for their artwork and neverending help, Mr. Dan Smith, our Jostens' representative for his creativity and solutions to our many problems, and Mr. Gary Melino, our professional photographer from Brown Studios for his flexible schedule and ability to show our class as we all know it: the best!

Finally, our advisor and friend, Mr. Donald Frederick. The possibility of the "Tattletale '86" containing 48 extra color pages resulted in many different situations. However, Mr. Frederick's support and help from the Senior Class, the completion of 64 color pages was not only a reality but a great success. Thanks so much!

Now it's time to move onward to people, places, and things unknown. We all share the common experience of being a part of the Class of 1986 which hopefully will be remembered for a lifetime. Along with the rest of the staff, we would like to wish you the best of luck and and success in whatever you go one to do. We hope everyone will personally be able to keep in touch with one another; however, if that becomes impossible we hope "Tattletale '86" can help.

The Space Program in its twenty-fifth year has been an inspiration to us all. It has allowed discovery of new frontiers in the exciting regions beyond Earth. Its expectation are limitless and its vision boundless. Our heroes have been the men and women who have been fortunate enough to be a part of this new era of exploration.

In order to make these visions a reality, it is sometimes necessary to make sacrifices. Such was the case of the tragic last flight of the Space Shuttle Challenger on January 28, 1986. The men and women who committed their lives to the advancement of space technology will always be remembered in the hearts and minds of everyone in America, in our world. It is hard for us to understand why such a tragedy occured, yet because of it, we have become more aware of our Space Program and its costs. No longer will we take for granted the hard, meticulous work and training the various engineers and astronauts invest to the fulfillment of many people's dreams.

We would like to extend our deepest sympathies to the families of the Challenger Crew. Always a part of us, their memory as well as their hopes and dreams, will live on. Someday we shall witness a new world shown to us, in part, by the dedicated efforts and sacrifices of these men and women.
